

Here are our core values...

Accountability

Holding ourselves responsible for our actions and performance

Leadership

Empowering individuals within and outside of our company to help guide and inspire others

Honest and Trust

Being sincere in everything we say and do, and building relationships that people can trust

Open Communication

Fostering a corporate environment where information moves freely in a timely manner

Respect

Appreciating the individuality of each Ubitquity team member and advisor by acting in a professional manner

Teamwork

Sharing our ideas and projects in an open and supportive manner from our directors and staff in order to achieve greatness